

CONTENTS OF VOLUME III.

ESSAYS RELATIVE TO THE PAST, PRESENT, AND PROSPECTIVE STATE OF MAN AS A PROGRESSIVE CREATURE.	PAGE	5. Walks upon the Island of Honan	213	SKETCHES OF THE HISTORY OF SCIENCE.	PAGE
POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.—Newspapers—amount of information necessary for perusing them with ease and intelligence—	PAGE	6. Visit to the Fa Te Gardens, and Return to Macao by the Inner Passage	344	—1. Early and Late Progress of Science	289
influence on their readers	33	7. Walks about Macao	360	2. Popular View of Bacon's Novum Organum	321
CHANCES OF LIVING IN LONDON.—No. 1.—Comparative view of the condition and earnings of members of the various professions and trades	65	8. Walks upon the Lapa near Macao	376	3. Modern Creation and Progress of Science	369
No. 2.—London the most extensive field of labour of any city in the world—Effect of competition—Habitations of the poor—Lodging-houses—Private boarding-houses—Estimate of the necessary expenses of different classes, illustrated by a tale of real life	83	9. Women in China	392	How Dew is Formed	401
THE SEALED BOOK.—The Bible written for a progressive creature, and better understood as men advance in knowledge—not a book of science—a sealed book which is gradually unsealing	72	Chinese Testimonials of Gratitude	298	Poisons and their Antidotes	406
THE PEOPLE AND THEIR OPINIONS.—Means taken to ascertain the real opinions of the "People"—General disposition for the maintenance of good order—Capital punishments—Government regarded as existing solely from its rationality, not on account of its antiquity—Feeling towards the sovereign—Economy—Representation—Emigration—Changes for moral purposes must be effected by moral means	82	IRELAND.
CAPITAL PUNISHMENTS.—The warning given to Noah considered—No general authority from God for taking away human life—Blood revenge modified by Moses—Capital punishments opposed to the spirit of the Christian religion	113	A RAMBLE INTO IRELAND.—No. 1.—Railway travelling—Steam voyage to Dublin—State of that city—Irish coachmen and beggars—Poor laws—and Potatoes	17	COUNTRIES, TRAVELS, AND TRAVELLERS
MUTUAL INSTRUCTION SOCIETIES.—Juvenile debating clubs—evils attendant on them—Beneficial influence of mutual instruction societies—Communications relating to them from correspondents	129	No. 2.—Thurles—Habitual waste of time by the Irish—Mismanagement of their inns—Hanigan the piper—Temperance associations	40	AN AUTUMN RAMBLE AMONG THE VINEYARDS OF THE RHEINLAND	1
USEFUL KNOWLEDGE; with a few Hints to Members of Mutual Instruction Societies	232	No. 3.—Visit to Father Molowny—Irish hospitality—Success of Father Mathew in putting a stop to whiskey-drinking	49	Women in India, with a Description of a Suttee	20
GAMES AND AMUSEMENTS OF THE ANCIENT GREEKS	8	SOCIAL AND POLITICAL ECONOMY.		STEAM ON THE PROPONTIS AND HELLES-POINT	24
ANCIENT GREEK AGRICULTURE AND ARTS	245	Hints to the Ladies (statistics of marriage)	46	A Peculiar People—Sketch of the Yezedis	29
ANCIENT GREEK ARTS, DIET, AND MEDICINE	339	Effects of a deficient Harvest	62	The Benus—the supposed Aborigines of the Malay Peninsula	43
CHINA AND THE CHINESE.		Views of European mortality	68	The Assam Tea Trade	53
1. Map of the Canton River—Landing at Macao, and Passage from thence to Canton; or, a Sail up the Pearl River	209	Property, Capital, and Credit.—1. Property—Production and Accumulation	269	ASCENT OF THE RHINE	59
2. Walks about Canton	225	2. Capital and Credit	300	Hungary and Transylvania	102, 121
3. The same subject continued	228	SAVINGS' BANKS AND ANNUITY SOCIETIES	357	Russia—its Autocrat, its People, and its Power	116
4. Visits to the Ophthalmic Institution at Canton	264	EDUCATION.		A MORNING RAMBLE IN SMYRNA	156
		Fellenberg's Agricultural School at Meiskirch	39	Benares, the Holy City of Hindustan	173
		How to learn German	71	Journey from Baghdad to Al Hadhr	187
		Manchester Mechanics' Institution	105	The City of the Plagues	218
		Mutual Instruction Societies	129	Ascent of the Peak of Teneriffe	229
		Useful Knowledge; with a few Hints to Members of Mutual Instruction Societies	232	A STEAM VOYAGE ON THE MEDITERRANEAN	257
		Education and Emigration	238	The Island of Ceylon	277
		Mental Exercise in relation to health	259	Hunting in the Island of Ceylon	292
		Liverpool Mechanics' Institution	299	THE NORTH AMERICAN INDIANS—1. Are the Indians capable of Civilisation?	280
		Hints for the Management of Sunday Schools	302	2. Character, Origin, Superstitions, and Antiquities	371
		GLANCES AT SCIENTIFIC SUBJECTS.		An Evening in Florence	310
		Rise of the Land in Sweden	5	STOCKHOLM, WITH SOME ACCOUNT OF BERNADOTTE, KING OF SWEDEN	317
		The Age of the World	23	Elephant Hunting at the Cape	334
		The Ocean	137	Description of a Zeenahnah	347
		Galvanic Battery	158	The Gulf Stream. By John Neal	358
		Study of Astronomy	181	COLONIES AND EMIGRATION.
		Hot and Cold Iron Blast	189	NEW ZEALAND.—No. 1. Importance of, as an emigration field—Advice to emigrants—History of its discovery—New Zealand Land Company	27
		Weather Wisdom	246	No. 2.—Geographical description of the Islands—Natural productions—Character and customs of the natives—Instructions to Col. Wakefield, the agent of the New Zealand Land Company	83
		The Signs of the Zodiac	255	No. 3.—Missionary settlements—Condition of other colonists—want of vigour in the measures pursued by the English government for preserving order among the British Inhabitants of New Zealand
		Mental Exercise in relation to health	259

	PAGE		PAGE		PAGE
—Sketch of the proceedings of the New Zealand Land Company—Brief review of our various colonies, and advice to emigrants generally	108	RECOLLECTIONS OF LOUIS PHILIPPE, KING OF THE FRENCH	56	Adventures of Two Brothers during the American War of Independence	165, 179
Singapore, and the other British Settlements in the Straits of Malacca	75	THE MAN WHOM EVERYBODY LIKES	86	Bullum v. Boatum	173
New Zealand Conveyancing	234	THE HIGHLAND BOYS	ib.	Passport Perplexities	182
Education and Emigration	238	Second Thoughts Best	90	A Visit to the Maid of Saragossa	186
		THE USEFUL FAMILY	99	The Slave Trade	195
NATURAL HISTORY.		THE PHYSICIAN'S LEVER	107	Lovers' Leap, Middleton Dale, Derbyshire	198
Notes on the Redbreast, Sparrow, Rook, and Titmouse	4	PROVINCIAL RIVALRIES IN TRADE	120	The Funeral of a Moth	237
Preparation and effect of the Upas Poison (the Benuas—the supposed Aborigines of the Malay Peninsula)	44	Ambition Cured	134	Tales by an Arab Watchfire	239
Rambles of an American Naturalist. By John D. Godman	148, 171, 190, 204, 235, 267	THE SMUGGLER—A TALE OF THE SEA	145, 168, 184	Queen Anne's Farthings	ib.
History of an Ungka Ape	213	MADAME LE NORMAND THE PARISIAN FORTUNE-TELLER	164	The Universal Penny Postage	240
Intellectuality of Domestic Animals	340, 364, 379	COMMON EVENTS	177	Diamonds and other Precious Stones	263
Monkey Stories	406	A Castilian Legend. By Washington Irving	199	The Forlorn Hope	286
		GOOD AND BAD LUCK	200	The Eider Duck	287
LONDONIANA.		SOVEREIGN GULLS	212	Miser and no Miser	ib.
The Smithfield Cattle Show	7	The Granada Smuggler	222	Books and Bookstalls	291
The London Missionary Museum	60	THE VIRGIN WIFE	241	Memoirs of a Prisoner of State	305, 330
Catlin's Indian Gallery	97	The Grand Prior of Minorca—a veritable Ghost Story. By Washington Irving	250	The Yankee Pass	351
Westminster Hall	153	RESPECTABLE GOOD-FOR-NOTHING PEOPLE	266	Woman's Wit	367
The Twelve Great Livery Companies of London	253	THE PUBLIC OFFICE	276	Lotteries in the Olden Time	390
		The Ghost-Book. By Miss Leslie	283	The Scaman	398
MACHINERY OF THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT.		THE REGULAR TORN-DOWNER	308
1. The Cabinet—mode of construction—Conduct of Louis-Philippe towards his ministers—Other foreign governments—Proceedings of a Cabinet Council—Responsibility of ministers—Duties of the different officers—The Chiltern Hundreds—Management of "ministerial" newspapers	161	Pelayo and the Merchant's Daughter. By Washington Irving	311	POETS AND POETRY.
2. The Privy Council—the Foreign Office—Suggestion for its improvement	193	A Sketch from Life	316	To Night; by Shelley	7
3. The Colonial Office—the Board of Control—Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster—the Mint—the Board of Trade—the Secretary at War and the Commander-in-Chief of the Forces—the Board of Admiralty—the Ordnance	216	The Fatal Revenge: a Highland Story	324	Love in Absence; by Mrs. Jameson	9
		The French Roll: a Tale of the Last Century	337	Byron's Last Words; by Andrew Park	29
		SHUFFLERS	349	The Dead Soldier; by Malcolm	48
		THE PUBLIC-SPIRITED MAN	353	The Infant and Watch; by A. A. Watts	72
		The Painter and the Old Chest	354	Human Friendships. From Bowring's Bavian Anthology	79
		The Harp: a Ghost Story	363	A Warning for Tourists in "Rheinland;" by T. Hood	96
		The Magician's Visitor	375	A Poetical Picture Gallery	116
		Vicissitudes	381	The First of March	158
		The Plum-tree of Brignolles	385	The Blind Boy	174
		The Flood and the Rescue: a Story of Massachusetts	395	Song—"Sing to me in the days of spring-time, beloved"	175
		The Indian Wife	404	The Merry Month of March	207
				Lines on the Sudden Death of a Mother of Young Children	223
		BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES.		The Impaled Butterfly	234
		Sir William James, Bart., Chairman of the East India Company	69	Home	238
		John D. Godman	132	The Invitation of Wisdom to the Young	256
		Madame Roland	227	Cross Questioning	262
		Early Life of Sir William Herschel	294	To an Indian Gold Coin, by Dr. Leyden	269
		Lady Grissell Baillie	326	The Dreamer to his Daughter; by George Fletcher, a Composer	288
				The Widow's Hope; by H. F. Gould	302
		MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES.		We met when life and hope were new	320
		Earthquake of Caracas	13	May	335
		On Reading Burton's Anatomy of Melancholy	14	The Death of Robin Hood	347
		Matthew Pollen, the Miller of Floreston	36	Hymn to the Flowers	352
		The Emigrant Highlander	45	Summer Stanzas	367
		Hints to the Ladies	46	Thomas commendens Ministers Woldest Daeter	368
		Queen Elizabeth at Greenwich	53	Osmyn and Caled	376
		Effects of a Deficient Harvest	62	Morning Meditations	384
		Derby Foot-ball on Shrove Tuesday	100	The Skylark	399
		The Use of Opium in the East	73
		The Hammer	101	THE ENGLISH POETS.
		The Gallette, or Chesnut Cake	119	1. Introductory Article	328
		Influence of Periodical Literature	124	2. Dryden	387
		Singular Persian Monument and Superstition	125
		Commercial Power of Great Britain	126	SCRAPIANA.
		Description of Buenos Ayres	ib.	Hazlitt's Character of Coleridge	8
		The Mercy of Judge Jefferies	139	Music of Humanity	38
		Blood-Revenge among the Namaquas	141	Wine	43
		Of Animal Food in General	142	Increase of Riches under George III. A Musical Enthusiast. Apprehensions and Misapprehensions. Paradise Lost	47
		Ancient Scottish Games	150	Evils of Railroads. A Newsmonger. Laconics. Know thy Power. Irish Wit	48
		The Albigenes and Vallesnes	ib.	Effects of Poverty on the Domestic Affections	69
		The Fur Trade in Siberia	151	Time	72
		Determined Defence of a Convoy	152	What Education is	75
TALES, ESSAYS, AND SKETCHES OF LIFE AND MANNERS, &c.
ORIGINAL AND SELECTED.
Sensibility Jack, and his story of the Battle of Copenhagen and the wounded Lieutenant	3
A Love Match	10

CONTENTS.

vii

Importance of the Arts. Treasure-finding in the Reign of Queen Elizabeth. Prerogative of Englishwomen	78	Oysters	387	Electro magnetism	176
Faultlessness. Example before Precept. Lady Jane Grey. Wise Ignorance. Mutability. Constancy	79	The New Testament	403	Emigration, letter from a Correspondent seeking advice as to emigration, and reply of the Editor, 31, 80—to America, considered	224
Home-brewed Wines	85			Employment for females—letter from Cor- respondent, remarks, and enquiries concerning it, 111—communications on the subject, 207 —botany recommended as a profession	271
Roger Bacon	94	LITERARY LETTER-BOX.		English language, Richardson's dictionary of recommended	400
Resemblance of the Danish Language to the Lowland Scotch. Criticism. Danger. La- conics	96	Alchemy	192	Farthings, Queen Anne's	176
Goldsmith	100	Alexandrian Library—how destroyed	80	Francis, Sir Philip, the reputed author of the "Letters of Junius"	192
Alligators in South America	105	Algebra and the Differential and Integral Cal- culus—Letter from a Correspondent and Re- ply	16	Funds, the, their nature	303
Sago Bread	108	Almanacks, celebrated Prediction of an Ameri- can one	64	Gil Blas, authorship of	32
Origin of the Names of Places	110	America, Emigration to, considered	224	Gravitation	160
A Picture. The Future Life. Good in Every- thing. Preaching. The Vesuvian Album. A Puritan Sabbath. The Depth of Distress. Childhood. English Ladies	112	Animals, the subject of their creation considered Annuities, scale of those granted by Government (see Savings Bank Annuities and Life Assur- ance)	169	Greek language, advice as to its acquirement	79
Powers of the Arab Horse	137	Artist, the profession of an, recommended by a Correspondent, as suitable to one possessing a bare independence, but too limited to afford superfluities	399	Grievous, Peter, letter from him seeking for ad- vice and consolation	18
Dietetics in India	140	Assignats	16	—Answer to his letter from J. H. R., suggesting the profession of an artist as a remedy for the ills complained of	399
Definition of a Character	149	Beef-eater, etymology of the word	176	Gymnastics	16
Connubial Happiness: a Picture	159	Bianconi, Carlo, sketch of his history	79	Hackney-coaches	16
Making the most of an Ejectment	165	Birds, their oil glands and their use	303	Hail and Snow, how formed	160
The Seasons	170	Bishops, Catholic, explanation of the title "in partibus," sometimes conferred on them	64	High-Priest of the Jews	272
Theory and Practice. Lord Collingwood. No- blemen Envious and Idle. Etymologists	174	Blue Stockings, origin of the term	208	Horse-power of a steam engine, how estimated	28
Filial Affection of the Moors	179	Bogs, bursting of	111	Humanitas, letter from, describing the condition of a crippled young man, and inquiring whether anything could be effected to afford him relief by enabling him to move about	303
Idleness. Light Reading	191	Booksellers' Assistants, chance of their employ- ment in Paris, 175; in London, 176—Advice to one desirous of going to India	336	Ideas of March	304
Dr. Doddridge's Epigram on his Family Motto "Dum vivimus vivamus"	198	Botany, recommended to females as a profession	271	Idolatry not probably practised in the time of Abraham	271
The Uses of Mythology. Music and Novels. Returning Energy	207	Campbor, why is it rotary in water? 144—The fact doubted, 208—Further remarks	304	Indians, North American, mode of burial of the dead among them	176
The Character of an Atheist	215	Capillary attraction	160	Ireland, letter from a Correspondent who pro- poses to settle in the Emerald Isle	159
A Fleeting Eternity. Cuttle Fish	223	Cash, mode of securing in letters	303	Jews, possess all the privileges of other citizens in America	96
On War. Not at Home. Turkish Title of Ef- fendi. Symbolic Festival. Laconics. Soli- tude	40	Charles II., papers found in his strong box	128	—their priesthood	372
Flaxman and his Wife	249	Children, hints for the management of their education	224, 271	Junius, letters of, Sir Philip Francis their re- puted author	192
Generosity of the Medical Profession. Marriage. Standing on Ceremony	256	China, conquest of, by the Tartars	144	Life Assurance, an operative's inquiries as to savings bank annuities, 94—Answers to his queries	189
The Reindeer's Plague	263	Chronology, Dr. Hales's New Analysis of	32	Light a material substance	94
Horses	276	Coal, of vegetable origin	208	Liquid and Fluid, definition of the terms, 150— further explanation	224
Early and Improvident Marriages	279	Coco de Mer, method of procuring its germina- tion	176	Liverpool, trade of, compared with that of Lon- don	18
Suicide. Extraction of Pope Pius VII. Du Val the Highwayman. Love	288	Coins (see Currency)—Query concerning the etiquette of alternately reversing the heads of successive sovereigns upon their coins	16	Living in London, calculations of the necessary weekly expenses of a family, 31—Letter from a country correspondent desirous to move to London—Advice to him to remain for the pre- sent where he is	64
Pronunciation of the Latin	290	Conversation, associations for its promotion	303	Lobsters, why they turn red when boiled	176
Anarchy. A Royal Rival in Trade. A Lively Imagination. Friendship	302	Creation (see Animals) of the world, the Mosaic account of, alone to be relied on	192	London and Liverpool, comparative trade of the two cities	224
Effects of Education	308	Cubic Nitre (see Nitrate of Soda)		Luddism, meaning of the term	271
Hero-Admiration pernicious	309	Currency, readjustment of its numerical value, 160—various kinds in use in England at dif- ferent periods	271	Magna Græcia, the term applied with propriety to the Greek colonies in Italy	32
Atmospheric Effects	313	Draper's Assistant, remarks on a letter received from one	112	Mama and Papa, etymology of the words	400
Singular methods of Study	316	Druses, information concerning them	224	Manure, different kinds made use of	112
Influence of Occupation upon the Duration of Life	317	Editorial Remarks—Introductory, 14—the Let- ter-Box opened for the benefit of all readers of the Journal, 64—hints to Correspondents on their relative position with the Editor, 127 —when letters not answered, there is a suffi- cient reason, 191—general advice to young men on the system to be pursued in their studies, 143—Correspondents seeking in- formation on points of Domestic Economy referred to the "Magazine" devoted to that subject, 208—Correspondents who think them- selves forgotten should write again, 303—ap- peal to our readers	352	Mariner's Compass, variation of the	95
Female Fortitude. Importance of a Good Hand- writing. Death. Napoleon. Courtesy	320	Education, self, 208—of children	224, 271	Marriage, its influence on national character, 127 —considered in its moral, social, and politi- cal relations	224
Apple Dumplings	340	Eighteen-gun Brig, dimensions of an	192	Mental Faculties, different in degree	304
Musical Anecdote	344	Electrotype, account of the, 127—further re- marks on	160	Milton, explanation of a passage in his poem "Paradise Lost"	304
Anecdote of the Elder Sheridan	349			Musical Time	235
The Teeth. Hints to Dancers. Self-considera- tion. Religion	351			Mutual Instruction Societies, letter from a mem- ber of a committee about to establish one, 32 —communications sought from members	79
A Child	357
Anecdote of Burns	363
Queen Anne	367
The French and Plum Pudding. Garrick's Epi- gram. Laconics. The Feast of Cherries. Pitt and Thurlow	368
Bouaparte's Wounds	371
True Politeness	379
Precedence	383
Sir Henry Saville. Cost of Steele's Periwig. Lines said to have been found in Lord Byron's Bible. Fielding and Steele. Compliment. Gibbon's Obligations to the Militia. A De- sign on the Popedom. Spenser. A Noble Laundress. Translator of the Bible. Direct Evidence. Pin Money. Printing	384

	PAGE		PAGE		PAGE
National debt, the explanation of	64	Pre-Adamites	192	Stars, why they can be seen in the day-time by a person at the bottom of a well	111
National Loan Fund recommended	189	Queen Anne's Farthings	176	Steam Engine, mode in which its power is expressed	272
Navy, admissibility of lads into it	336	Railroad Travelling, reduction of the fares proposed	400	Storms, law of, Solomon not acquainted with the theory of them
Newman, George, reply to his letter requesting the reprint of an article	16	Rudder, the power of, explained	271	Style, advice on the formation of a literary	400
Nitrate of soda, useful as a manure	112, 192	Salt, chemical qualities of, and modes of obtaining it	64	Suburban Villas, answer to an inquirer concerning them	303
Normal Schools, explanation of the term	192	Savings Bank Annuities, letter from an "operative" requesting information concerning them, 94—Answers to the letter of "an operative" by two correspondents	159	Surnames	128
Novel Reading, letter from a correspondent decrying the practice, and remarks upon it, 144—letter from a correspondent, 191—additional remarks	303	Scotchman, A pair, letter from, laudatory and remonstrative	175	Swallows are undoubtedly birds of passage	144
Palestine, pictorial history of, recommended	32	Sea-water, its effects on iron	160	Sybaris, notices of the city and its inhabitants	32
Pamphlet, etymology of the word	80	Self-education, letter of Juvenis and reply, 208—general remarks on several letters received from various correspondents	272	Tea	336
Papa (see Mama)		Shells, directions for cleaning	192	Temperance	385
Paris, advice as to young men visiting it, and other parts of the Continent	175	Shooting Stars	15	Terah, the father of Abraham, letter from a correspondent inquiring his profession, and reply	271
Penny Postage, an advance in our social condition	31	Signs for Inns, &c.	272	Tobacco Smoking	400
Petrification, derivation of the word, and explanation of its meaning	95	Skeleton, description of that of man	111	Tomahawk, the description of	176
Physiognomy	127	Snow and Hail, how formed	160	Voltaic Electricity, employment of in copying medals, &c.	127
Poetry	304	Standards, various kinds used by the ancients	95	Women, their comparative strength (See also Employment of Women)	208
Pounds, Shillings, and Pence, explanation of the terms	271

	PAGE		PAGE		PAGE
National debt, the explanation of	64	Pre-Adamites	192	Stars, why they can be seen in the day-time by a person at the bottom of a well	111
National Loan Fund recommended	159	Queen Anne's Farthings	176	Steam Engine, mode in which its power is expressed	273
Navy, admissibility of lads into it	336	Railroad Travelling, reduction of the fares proposed	400	Storms, law of, Solomon not acquainted with the theory of them
Newman, George, reply to his letter requesting the reprint of an article	16	Rudder, the power of, explained	271	Style, advice on the formation of a literary	400
Nitrate of soda, useful as a manure	112, 192	Salt, chemical qualities of, and modes of obtaining it	64	Suburban Villas, answer to an inquirer concerning them	303
Normal Schools, explanation of the term	192	Savings Bank Annuities, letter from an "operative" requesting information concerning them, 94—Answers to the letter of "an operative" by two correspondents	159	Surnames	128
Novel Reading, letter from a correspondent decrying the practice, and remarks upon it, 144—letter from a correspondent, 191—additional remarks	303	Scotchman, A pair, letter from, laudatory and remonstrative	173	Swallows are undoubtedly birds of passage	144
Palestine, pictorial history of, recommended	32	Sea-water, its effects on iron	160	Sybaris, notices of the city and its inhabitants	32
Pamphlet, etymology of the word	80	Self-education, letter of Juvenis and reply, 208—general remarks on several letters received from various correspondents	272	Tea	336
Papa (see Mama)		Shells, directions for cleaning	192	Temperance	335
Paris, advice as to young men visiting it, and other parts of the Continent	175	Shooting Stars	15	Terah, the father of Abraham, letter from a correspondent inquiring his profession, and reply	271
Penny Postage, an advance in our social condition	31	Signs for Inns, &c.	272	Tobacco Smoking	400
Petrification, derivation of the word, and explanation of its meaning	95	Skeleton, description of that of man	111	Tomahawk, the description of	176
Physiognomy	127	Snow and Hail, how formed	160	Voltaic Electricity, employment of in copying medals, &c.	127
Poetry	304	Standards, various kinds used by the ancients	93	Women, their comparative strength (See also Employment of Women)	298
Pounds, Shillings, and Pence, explanation of the terms	271

